

Grant Development Services
from strategy to implementation

Writing Grants is an Art and a Science

The BBCetc team provides comprehensive assistance in developing and executing grant funding programs that meet the strategic goals and objectives of the client.

Grant Development Services

Successful grant funding is not just in the writing. Utilizing grants as a strategy to fund either basic or applied research is a process that, when implemented with planning and diligence, can result in broad-based success.

BBCetc offers its clients assistance in all aspects of the process, including:

- Assessment of competencies and capabilities
- Strategic planning
- Grant sourcing
- Training on all aspects of the process including in-depth proposal preparation
- Pre-submission review and editing
- Registrations and electronic submission assistance
- Analysis of results
- Assistance with revision and resubmission
- Post-award administrative assistance
- Post-award grant management
